In the event that the General Meeting is adjourned, the adjourned meeting shall be made up of members who provide evidence of holding shares in the Company, provided that the record date shall be observed.

Each share qualifies for one vote. The total number of shares in the Company is 133 million.

IV. Procedure for attendance in the General Meeting

To attend the General Meeting, shareholders must previously indicate this intention in writing to the financial intermediary with whom the account is opened, at the latest, by 11:59 p.m. (GMT) on 24 November 2024, the day before the record date.

The financial intermediary who - according to the terms set forth in the preceding paragraph - has been informed of the intention of his/her client to attend the General Meeting, must send to the Chair of the Presiding Board of the General Meeting by 11:59 p.m. (GMT) on 25 November 2024 informing of the shareholder's intention to participate in the General Meeting and the number of shares registered in their client's name, with reference to the record date. Shareholders who, in their professional capacity, hold shares in their own name but on behalf of clients, may cast a vote differing from their own, provided that, in addition to their notice of attendance and provision of the above information by the relevant financial intermediary, they inform the Chair of the Presiding Board of the General Meeting of this no later than 11:59 p.m. (GMT) on 25 November 2024, and provide sufficient and adequate evidence of (a) the proper identification of each client and the number of shares on behalf of which they will vote and (b) the voting instructions received from their client with respect to each item of business.

The participation of the shareholder or his representative in the General Meeting is admitted regardless of having exercised the respective voting right by postal correspondence, under the terms specified below.

A shareholder who has given notice of his/her intention to participate in the General Meeting and has transferred the ownership of his/her shares in the period between the record date and the closing of the relevant General Meeting must immediately inform the Chair of the Presiding Board of the General Meeting and the Portuguese Securities Market Commission thereof.

V. Procedure for voting by correspondence

A. Common provisions for voting by electronic or postal correspondence

Shareholders may exercise their voting rights by voting by electronic or postal correspondence, in accordance with the provisions of Article 384(8) and (9), of the Portuguese Companies Act, Article 22 of the Portuguese Securities Market Act and Article 20 of the Articles of Association of Corticeira Amorim, S.G.P.S., S.A.

Only votes by electronic or postal correspondence from shareholders that prove their capacity as shareholders will be considered under the terms mentioned above to the record date.

Voting by electronic or postal correspondence does not preclude the presentation, by the financial intermediary, until 11:59 p.m. (GMT) on 25 November 2024, of the information on the number of shares registered in the name of their client.

Votes sent by electronic or postal correspondence are equivalent to negative votes for proposals submitted after the date on which such votes were cast. The presence of the shareholder at the General Meeting revokes any vote sent by electronic or postal correspondence.

Shareholders will be able to use the ballot paper template available on the Company's website (<https://www.amorim.com/en/investors/general-meeting/>).

B. Procedure for voting by electronic correspondence

In order to exercise their voting rights by electronic correspondence, shareholders must express their intention to the Chairman of the General Meeting by email, to the email address ag.corticeiraamorim@amorim.com, before 23:59 (GMT) on 27 November 2024.

Subsequently, shareholders will receive an email confirming the correctness of the documentation relating to exercising their voting right (identification, powers, shares held), as well as the receipt of their intention to

VI. Representation at the General Meeting

As provided in article 23 of the Portuguese Securities Market Act, a shareholder can be represented by a proxy at a General Meeting. The voluntary representation shall comply with the following rules:

- a. A shareholder can be represented by a proxy of his/her choice;
- b. A corporation can be represented by their legal representatives or the person who the corporation shall designate for the purpose.

The Chair of the Presiding Board of the General Meeting has to be informed in writing of any such proxy forms, at the latest, by 11:59 p.m. (GMT) on 25 November 2024, and shareholders may use the email address ag.corticeiraamorim@amorim.com for this purpose.

Failure to communicate the means of representation as set out above will prevent the shareholder from participating in the General Meeting via a representative, although electronic or postal voting will be permitted under the terms and within the period described in item V of this notice.

Together with the communication referred to in the previous paragraph, shareholders must also submit:

- a. the respective instrument(s) of representation;
- b. a copy of the representative's identification document; and
- c. in the case of a corporate shareholder, a document proving the powers to appoint their representative (i.e., copy of power of attorney or indication of the access code to the respective permanent certificate from that company's registry office).

Shareholders can use the draft power of attorney template for representation at the General Meeting available on the Company's website (<https://www.amorim.com/en/investors/general-meeting/>).
