Purpose

One. This Regulation establishes the duties, composition and modus operandi of the Appointments, Evaluation and Remuneration Committee (AERC) of Corticeira Amorim S.G.P.S., S.A. (“Corticeira Amorim”).

Two. The duties of the AERC will focus on the governing bodies and key management personnel of Corticeira Amorim S.G.P.S., S.A.

Article II

Appointment and Composition

One. The AERC will be composed of three members, appointed by the Board of Directors of Corticeira Amorim, with a majority of non-executive members who are independent of that Board. Executive members of the Board of Directors of Corticeira Amorim cannot be members of the AERC.

Two. The position of Chair of the AERC will necessarily be attributed to an independent director of Corticeira Amorim’s Audit Committee.

Three. Other persons may be invited to attend meetings on a permanent basis, at the invitation of the AERC, but without having voting rights. Such persons shall be invited taking into account their specialised knowledge of the AERC’s area of intervention.

Four. The AERC may also request that other persons, internal or external to Corticeira Amorim, may attend specific meetings of the AERC, due to the fact they have knowledge that may be relevant to the topics under discussion.

Five. The Board of Directors must take into account, when selecting the persons to be appointed to the AERC, the requirements and skills that are appropriate in view of the specific circumstances of Corticeira Amorim.

Six. The term of office of the members of the AERC coincides with the term of office of the Board of Directors of Corticeira Amorim, and ending when the term of office of the Board of Directors terminates. If a member of the AERC is definitively absent, the Board of Directors must designate a new member.

Article III

Support Structure

One. The AERC shall appoint as Executive Secretary a person who is not a member of this Committee, to assist in the preparation and holding of the meetings, including the proposal of the topics to be included in the agendas. The Executive Secretary shall also prepare the respective minutes and ensure the circulation of information among the members of the Committee on the matters dealt with in the meetings.

Two. The Executive Secretary shall participate permanently, but without the right to vote, in the meetings of the AERC and shall functionally report to the Chair of the AERC.

Three. The Secretary of the AERC shall be responsible for performing the functions parallel to those that sub-paragraphs a), b), c) and d) of article 446-B of the Portuguese Companies Act establish for the Company Secretary.

Four. The AERC must be free to decide, within the budgetary constraints established by the Board of Directors, on the contracting by the Company of the consultancy services necessary or convenient for the performance of its duties. The AERC shall ensure that those services are provided independently and that the respective providers will not be hired for the provision of any other services to the Company itself or to other companies that are in a control or group relationship without the express authorisation of the AERC.

Article IV

Mission

The AERC is a permanent specialised internal committee of an informative and consultative nature, whose mission is to advise the Board of Directors (i) in the preparation of succession plans and profile recommendations for the members of Corticeira Amorim S.G.P.S., S.A.'s governing bodies; and (ii) in the evaluation of the overall performance of the Board of Directors itself, its executive members, the Audit Committee and the internal committees. The AERC will also monitor and support the Board of Directors in the appointment of the key management personnel of Corticeira Amorim S.G.P.S., S.A.

Article V

Duties

One. The AERC has the following duties:

In matters of appointments:

- a) Support and advise the Board of Directors in the selection of directors to be appointed to the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors ("ECBD") and to internal committees;
- b) Support and advise the Board of Directors in identifying and selecting potential candidates to fill vacancies occurring in the governing bodies and key management personnel of Corticeira Amorim S.G.P.S., S.A.;
- c) Prepare a well-founded opinion for the Board of Directors whenever any vacancy appears or there is a new term of office for the governing bodies mentioned in sub-paragraph b) above. That opinion identifies the people with the most suitable profile to fill that vacancy;
- d) The opinions of the AERC referred to in sub-paragraph c) above will be accompanied by (i) a justification regarding the adequacy of the profile, knowledge and curriculum of each candidate for the role to be performed, (ii) the terms of reference used by the AERC; these opinions will be prepared individually for each of the candidates for membership and/or for the body as a whole. The AERC shall induce, to the best of its abilities, transparent selection processes that include effective mechanisms for identifying potential candidates, and that those put forward for selection have the greatest merit, are best suited to the requirements of the role and promote adequate diversity within the organisation, including gender diversity;
- e) Draw up recommendations, criteria and requirements related to the profile of new members of the governing bodies referred to in sub-paragraph b) above, appropriate to the function to be performed. In addition to individual attributes (such as competence, independence, integrity, availability and experience), these profiles should consider diversity requirements, particularly to gender, which can contribute to improving the performance of the body and to the balance in its composition;
- f) Review and evaluate incompatibilities and independence of the members of the governing bodies.

In matters of evaluation and remuneration:

- g) Advise the Board of Directors in its annual self-assessment process, including the evaluation of the members of the ECBD, the Audit Committee and the internal committees;
- h) Advise the Board of Directors in setting the individual objectives and fixed and variable remuneration of the primary managers (non-directors) responsible for the internal control functions (Risk Management, Audit and Compliance);
- i) Advise the Board of Directors on the proposal of the criteria to be used in the annual process of evaluating and setting the variable remuneration of the ECBD members;

- j) Review and propose to the Board of Directors the Remuneration Policy and the Annual Remuneration Report of Corticeira Amorim, under the terms laid down in Law no. 50/2020 of 25 August, and issue an opinion on the proposals approved by the Board of Directors for submission to the ordinary annual general meeting of Corticeira Amorim S.G.P.S., S.A.;
 - k) Perform other duties or responsibilities that may be delegated to the AERC by the Board of Directors within the scope of its functions.

In order to avoid uncertainties, the AERC has no powers regarding the definition of the remuneration of the governing bodies of Corticeira Amorim S.G.P.S., S.A. or its key management personnel, but the assessment made by this Committee and the opinion on the Remuneration Policy of Governing Bodies and other Managers of Corticeira Amorim may potentially, and indirectly, have an impact on said remuneration.

Two. The special duties of the Chair of the AERC are:

- a) Convene, define the agenda and direct the work of the meetings of the AERC;
- b) Report to the Board of Directors on the activities developed, subjects addressed and the most relevant decisions of the AERC.

Three. The AERC may request from the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee, the ECBD or any other internal committee all information, documentation and assistance necessary for the exercise of its powers.

Four. In order to provide information or explanation to shareholders, the chairman and/or other member of the AERC must be present at the annual general meeting and at any other general meetings if the respective agenda includes a matter related to the remuneration of the members of the company's bodies and committees or if such presence has been requested by shareholders.

Three. The Executive Secretary shall send notice of each meeting to the members of the AERC at least 5 business days in advance, indicating the place, time and date of the meeting and the respective agenda.

Article XI
