2. WHEREAS, the Remuneration Committee considers that the remuneration policy and remuneration packages relating to the previous financial years are clearly conducive to:
 - as far as the Directors is concerned – the alignment of interests between the beneficiaries of such payments and the interests of the Company with a view to promoting an appropriate balance between the remuneration paid to each member of the Board and his/her managerial performance geared towards the medium to long-term profitability of the Company;
 - as far as the members of the remaining governing bodies is concerned – the carrying out in a professional, efficient and independent manner of the duties and obligations of the role assigned to each of these members according to the Law or the Company's articles of association;
3. 4. WHEREAS, as far as Public Interest Bodies is concerned, Law No. 28/2009 of 19 June 2009 provides that a report on the remuneration policy for members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board of the Company shall be submitted every year by the Remuneration Committee to the Annual General Meeting for members' approval;

5. WHEREAS, the Remuneration Committee believes that the adoption of this practice – i.e., submitting a Report on Remuneration Policy to the Annual General Meeting for members' consideration and approval – helps to promote understanding of the main guidelines underlying the remuneration policy thus ensuring transparency in fixing the remuneration packages payable by the Company;

- if adequate and feasible, such remuneration shall primarily consist of a fixed pay (for executive and non-executive directors) plus a variable pay (for executive directors only) as performance-based premium;
- the award of a variable pay component to executive directors shall be a performance based bonus that shall be contingent on his/her degree of fulfilment of the Company's strategic goals, targets, initiatives and priority actions set out in a three-year priority action plan as well as any annual deviation therefrom; key financial and non-financial indicators shall be taken into account in assessing the performance (including short-term performance) of each individual executive director and his/her measurable contribution to the Company's sustainable development in the medium/long-term;
- the actual amount of the variable component of the remuneration payable to executive directors shall depend on the performance evaluation of the individual director to be carried out every year by the Remuneration Committee, based on the measurable contribution of each individual executive director to both the Company's overall performance during the year under review and his/her degree of fulfilment of the Company's targets and implementation of the medium/long-term strategies adopted by the Company; results and level of achievement of the strategic goals of innovation, financial performance, value creation, competitiveness and growth;

- the payment of the variable pay component, if any, may be made wholly or in part, after determination of the profit (or loss) for the years in respect of the entire term of office of each director; there is, therefore, the possibility of the variable pay being reduced in the event of a significant deterioration in the Company's overall performance over the past financial year or if it is expected that the Company's financial picture will show major deterioration in the financial year under consideration;
